

On the Level

Name: _____

Federalism is...
The founders _____ the power between the _____ and _____ because they were _____ of a federal government that had too much _____.

Federal Government: The constitution _____ specific powers to the national, or federal government.

Define:

Expressed powers are...

Blank space for defining Expressed powers.

Implied powers are...

Blank space for defining Implied powers.

Inherent powers are...

Blank space for defining Inherent powers.

State Government: The U.S. Constitution does _____ delegate any specific powers to the states. Any powers not given to the _____ government and not denied, are given to the _____.

Define:

Reserved powers are...

Blank space for defining Reserved powers.

Denied powers are...

Blank space for defining Denied powers.

Local Government: Local government is _____ mentioned in the U.S. Constitution, and local governments get all their power from the _____. Every state's constitution is slightly _____, so each state government is slightly _____.

Name:

Expressed, Implied, & Inherent Powers

Concurrent Powers

Reserved Powers