

Proposing a 28th Amendment to the United States Constitution

Background: The U.S. Constitution has 27 Amendments. The first 10, the Bill of Rights, were ratified in 1791, and the Constitution has been amended 17 additional times over the past 230 years. The most recent amendment (#27) was added in 1992 and dealt with Congressional pay raises.

Directions: You have been appointed to a committee to create a new amendment. Review the amendments on the back of this paper and think about why they were enacted throughout our history. Now, think about current events and society around you. What would be a good amendment to add that could make a process simpler, bring more equality to the people, or just simply help the common good? Prepare a presentation to propose your amendment to the class. There will be a class vote and prize for the approved amendment.

Below are a few ideas that have actually been suggested. This should help you get you started.
